New Direction

Welcoming new faces at Memorial, as student nurses focus on clinical rounds

If you're seeing lots of fresh young faces around our place, it's because the Angelina College nursing school has begun summer clinical rotations. The summer term group will be here on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 6:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. through Aug. 8. Their clinical instructor is Kathy McMillan.

Students will focus on labor and delivery, nursery, obstetrics and pediatrics in June and will switch to 2Tucker and 3Tucker in July and August.

Encourage their excitement and show them that Memorial Hospital is a great place to work!

Hospital blood drive results in 12 donations and 1 day off with pay

Sherry Nix, staffing coordinator, was excited to win the day off with pay raffle for donating blood this week, but coworkers were good-natured in their unsupportive ribbing. They'll have another chance to win a day off with pay, if they donate during the next blood drive on Wednesday, August 23.

Baby, it's hot outside!

When afternoon "feels like" temps hit near the 100 degree mark this week, the only relief Gary Sexton, from plant ops, could find was in a cold glass of water!
